(PROVIDING RESOURCES AND ORIENTATION FOR FACULTY SUCCESS)

June 15, 2011

Dear New Part-Time Faculty,

Congratulations on being selected to teach for Eastern Kentucky University! Please mark your calendars and plan to attend the Providing Resources and Orientation for Faculty Success program on August 20, 2011. We anticipate your presence at this event and, as a new faculty member, expect you will benefit greatly from the information you receive.

Please find the agenda for the day enclosed. A CD that includes information concerning employment forms, email activation, and a parking form is also enclosed. We ask that you review this information in advance and complete and print the forms before attending the program on August 20th.

Food and fellowship will be provided. We look forward to meeting you during the Providing Resources and Orientation for Faculty Success program and assisting your transition to the University. In the meantime, if you have any questions, please contact rhonda.goode@eku.edu.

Sincerely,

Charlie Sweet
